To whom it may concern—

Ms Sabine Baumann has attended two of my Seminars, one on The Bronte Sisters and one on American Short Stories as Cultural Paradigm. She wrote two good papers, combining a firm grasp of the problems involved with a keen sense for precision.

A few days ago, Ms Bauman took her final exams in literature (a 45 min. oral) with me and achieved a maximum grade (6). This performance ranks her in the top 10%.

I have come to know and appreciate Ms Baumann both as an intelligent and independent-minded student and as a cooperative young woman. I have no doubts whatsoever that she would easily adapt to the new demands put on her as a student at a British university and can recommend her without any reservations.
